

FEBRUARY 24, 1847.

Read twice, and committed to a Committee of the Whole House to-morrow.

Mr. BUFFINGTON, from the Committee on the Judiciary, reported the following bill :

A BILL

For the relief of George B. Didlake and others.

1       Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives
2   of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That
3   the judgment of the United States of America against James 4   Harrison, James H. Overstreet, and George B. Didlake, in the 5   district court for the district of Kentucky, rendered at the No-
6   vember term eighteen hundred and forty, for one thousand
7   one hundred and forty-four dollars and thirty-seven and-a-half
8   cents, with interest from the fourth day of April, eighteen hun-9   dred and forty, until paid ; also, that the judgment between the 10  same parties, in the same court, at the November term eighteen 11  hundred and thirty-nine, for one thousand three hundred and 12  thirty-eight dollars and sixty-five and-a-half cents, with 13  interest from the fourth day of April, eighteen hundred and 14  thirty-nine, until paid, be, and the same are hereby released,
15  discharged, and held for nought ; and that the sales of property
16  of any or all of the defendants upon executions issued upon said 17  judgments, or either of them, be released, set aside, and held for 18  nought ; it appearing satisfactorily that the notes on which said 19  judgments were rendered were executed by the defendants with-20  out a legal and valid consideration.
